

Blame for spill
still uncertain

LOCAL

P. 3

metro

TUESDAY, JULY 31, 2007

WWW.METRONEWS.CA

VANCOUVER

Salon thinks pink for launch

ENTERTAINMENT

P. 14

Bene-Life Clinic
Stress? Headache? Insomnia?
Acupuncture help!
Call 604-761-2099

ACTRESS SCARLETT JOHANSSON, right, has reportedly signed up to play Jenna Jameson, the X-rated adult-entertainment icon, in a film about her life.

SOURCE: Associated Press

SINGER/ACTRESS Beyoncé Knowles has denied that she has been in talks to star in a film version of the Broadway show Aida.

SOURCE: Associated Press

RIGHT: Pink marabou and a tiny puppy too — models Sophie Andrew, left, and Aiden Dee party Paris Hilton style at Blo.

BELOW: Glowbar Group bar manager Jim Shelton is well positioned between models Robyn Tims, left, and Sky Foletto at the Blo party.

ABOVE: Capones' restaurant girls Brielle Wong, left, and Shannin Bloom pass out nibbles at the Blo opening.

LEFT: Volunteer Julia Paterson offers ice cold Mojitos to those in need of a Blo in Yaletown.

Salon owner thinks pink

Blo Me! That's the message salon owner Jon Paul Holt and his staff want to send to the thieves who broke in and stole the company's new Mac computers just days before opening. Actually, despite this tough "Blo" the slogan has taken hold in more ways than one as the award-winning, internationally acclaimed stylist and consultant to the stars celebrated his newest venture in Yaletown — Blo: Blow Dry Bar. Think "pink" was the theme as the salon staff partied in support of breast cancer research and encouraged everyone, except the thieves, to come on back for a quickie. Mean-

SOCIAL EYES

CATHERINE 'CAT' BARR
info@catherinebarr.com

while, neighbouring Opus Hotel was set to samba in the streets with its fifth annual summer street party in support of UNICEF and the fight for children with AIDS in Africa. Hotel partner John Evans, who is preparing to open his Montreal Opus location, was among the many VIPs in attendance. Hakuna Matata!

Go Cat! Please visit www.catherinebarr.com to submit your next "e-eyes" (info@catherinebarr.com). She can also be found on CPTR 1410 AM radio Fridays at 4 p.m.

RIGHT: Olympic silver medalist Charmaine Crooks supports UNICEF alongside Bar None and DHM operating partner Mike Shea at Opus.

RIGHT: Lions and tigers and ... zebras? Oh my, Jennifer Warren, left, and Victoria Plant get painted head to toe at Opus.

RIGHT: Jessica Olahon, left, Claire George and Meghan Flather serve up suds as African drums beat in the background at the Opus street party.

ABOVE: Actress Emily Holmes, left, who can be seen in the upcoming film Nightwatching, joins HGTV's She's Crafty host Wendy Russell and Crash Test Mommy host Nicole Oliver.

ABOVE: Opus Hotel and Trilogy Properties president John Evans presents a cheque for UNICEF with the help of Global TV anchor Chris Gallus. LEFT: Blo salon owner Jon Paul Holt and business partner Judy Brooks welcome VIPs like Cristina and Trevor Linden (Vancouver Canucks) to the opening night party in Yaletown.

More Music, More Movies,
More News, More Online

www.metronews.ca

metro